How does a weary world rejoice?

An Advent series in Luke's Gospel

Advent 2023

First Presbyterian Church of Auburn, AL

Join us this Advent season at First Presbyterian as we explore the question:

“How does a weary world rejoice?”

Through opportunities for study, worship, fellowship, and service we begin to answer this question by:

- acknowledging our weariness
- finding joy in connection
- allowing ourselves to be amazed and
- making room for the work of the Spirit

A full calendar of activities is available on the back of this brochure or at:

Faith Formation

Advent Devotionals for children and youth/adults are available as printed copies or digital downloads. These guides help us pause, reflect, and give thanks in the midst of this busy season.

Our Adult Advent Sunday School Series will be based on Kara Eidson's book, Stay Awhile: Advent Lessons in Divine Hospitality. You are welcome to purchase the book but do not need to read it to participate in the class.

Fellowship and Service

Serve alongside church members in our community by volunteering at the Community Market of East Alabama or the Cookie Walk to benefit Habitat for Humanity.

A NEW Advent Fellowship event will be held this year as we watch the Auburn Christmas Parade together as a church family from our FPC courtyard! Bring a chair and come enjoy hamburgers, hot dogs, drinks and

Our Music and Mission Dinner offers an opportunity to enjoy intergenerational musical offerings, share a meal together, and make a donation to the Lee County Department of Human Resources Christmas Wish List Fund.

Worship

In addition to our regular Sunday worship services we look forward to offering our Longest Night Service for those who find themselves in need of space to grieve at the holidays as well as our Christmas Eve Worship service including candlelight and communion.
